Serving families in Kempston

TheNet

What is The Net?

The Net is a group supporting isolated individuals and families living in Kempston. We offer practical help and support through friendship and building bridges within the community.

We aim to work with other agencies by offering the kind of help normally provided by 'extended family' and which might be considered outside the scope of statutory organisations.

We work within given standards, policies and codes of practice.

Who is it for?

Those in our community who are currently feeling isolated.

Reasons may include:

- struggling with mental or physical health
- having experienced difficult changes in life
- suffering domestic abuse

When?

Wednesday
10am-12 midday
Thursday
10am-12 midday

Where?

In the Oak Hall at
Project 229, Kempston

What do we do?

We provide a weekly session in term time.

If you have children under 5, they are able to play safely in a stimulating environment.

(You do not need to have children to attend).

Individuals have access to a varied programme of activities, and an opportunity to build friendships.

Places are initially offered for one year.
